*Non-member licensees must pay the NAR dues only if they chose not to become a member of CBOR. The dues are not prorated for non-members so they will pay $120 at any time they join. These licensees are real estate sales people NOT REALTORS®! The broker is responsible for reporting any non-member licensees associated with their office and for the NAR dues of those non-members. Although we cannot require membership, brokers can require their licensees to become members if they so choose.
